Val,
 Once I get this pen to write things will be O.K. The only thing is now I don't know what to say that I can write down here. This summer seems like it's going to be fun. (This is a difficult position to write in & you soon is talking to me.) & you'll probably be mad when you find out I was here & you weren't but this I'll make up for what you said last night. Something like that (not what you said but what you said it about) takes a while to get over. I will though, I think. I'd better go because it's getting late & you aren't here & I'm running out of words & space both. Hey Val.
 I'll see you

FRANKLIN AREA SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL MURRYSVILLE, PA.

"It is the men and women, boys and girls so poured in and out all day
That give the building a soul of dreams and thoughts and memories."

Carl Sandburg

Dear Val,

Always remember the fun we've had in the gals room at lunch time. And how we almost got caught in the morning. Never forget the things we've done in the hall and the looks we got from everyone. I'll always remember the night I stayed at your house and what happened.
Lots of luck in this dippy school and be good

Love
ya.

Linda
and Tom

A school building is constructed of steel and cement, strong and permanent, but it is designed to accommodate an ever-changing flow of students. Year after year buses empty their loads each morning, and people stream in waves into the hallways and classrooms. To the rhythm of bells, tides of people wash in and out of the rooms and corridors and finally back to the buses, leaving the building empty. Carl Sandburg in his poem "Skyscraper" says "It is the men and women, boys and girls so poured in and out all day that give the building a soul of dreams and thoughts and memories." As each individual forms a part of the mass, so each personality contributes to the whole of Franklin's soul—that abstract thing we call school spirit. Soon we, the class of 1964, will be leaving this student body. With us we will take our individual dreams and thoughts and memories, many of which were molded in these halls and rooms. Before we leave, we present the

To a real tuff Delmonter that I've been friends with a long time.
Best of luck in everything you do and I hope we will always be the best of friends. Remember all the fun we've had in school at lunch and on the bus in the morning. Don't forget how flipped you over Tom and how I liked Vinie. Remember the fight we had about Mary and that damn Diane Jarr (Zar face). Remember that time I went to church and saw Nick and was mad because he was with Maria. Don't forget how you were going with Gary and like Tommy and how I always want him to come up instead of Gary. Don't forget the time you got Dean's hair a blaze. And our playing games in the street and goofing around in general. Hope we will always be the best of friends (Honest Injun) and that you will always have the best of luck. May God Bless you.

IN MEMORIAM

DONNA CHERRONE

*What is there to say when someone is taken from our hearts?
Aren't there any words, only tears?
What can we say about a girl who was once a part of our lives?
"We loved her"? or "We are sorry"? or
"She walked into our lives for a moment and became a part of us"?
What is there to say?
She was Donna. She was someone we knew and loved; someone different, individual . . . but, nevertheless, a part of us.
She walked into our lives, and we accepted and loved her.
She has gone . . . She was Donna.
There is a place in our hearts for her.
What is there to say?*

Val, a really sharp girl with a top personality. I guess we can thank Ivan for us meeting each other, as much as you do dislike him. I'll never forget all those fabulous times together. Best of luck in that wonderful Xmas + New Year. I hope everything works future in all "we" it will.
out alright for us. I'm sure I love you forever → I wonder

SENIORS

The class of '64 managed to cram many activities into the months from September to June. Besides attending P.O.D. classes and reading Macbeth, they sponsored as a class the senior play, two dances, and a banquet. Members of the class also led and participated in other sports, clubs and activities.

These teachers were lucky to sponsor "The Class of Winners."

Senior Sponsors: Mr. David Burt, Head Sponsor; Mr. William Waskoskie, Mr. Hugh Gilmour, Mr. Lawrence Bowers, Mr. John Onder, Mr. David McCormick.

An honest game of "Old Maid" relaxes tension while the senior officers decide what to do with the funds left in the class treasury.

Class Officers: James Geiger, Secretary-Treasurer; Jeff Elias, Vice President; Bruce Baker, President.

Class Sponsors: Mr. John Hill; Mr. Paul Laing; Mr. Samuel Bohinc, Head Sponsor; Mrs. Marion Loveday; Mr. Mitchell Sasala; Mr. Hugh Jacobs.

With the removal of the junior high students, the sophomores again became the youngest class at Franklin. They did not allow this to hold them back in any way, for the class presented the Valentine's Dance, a spaghetti dinner, and adjusted to senior high curriculum. They also anticipated moving up the ladder when the school term resumed in the fall.

As usual, the sophomores try to shorten the day.

FACULTY

Teachers are an integral part of every school, for their duty is to accomplish the purpose of imparting knowledge. Our faculty goes beyond the domain of the classroom to extend its influence into extracurricular activities. Displaying concern for all students, Franklin's teachers make our high school years a truly memorable experience.

ORGANIZATIONS

QUILL STAFF STRIVES FOR ORIGINALITY

Drafting plans for the yearbook began early last spring. Drawing on the originality and diligent work of the staff members, stacks of blank lay-out sheets and masses of pictures were molded into the 1964 Quill.

Mary Johnston, Editor-in-Chief, conferred often with yearbook sponsor, Mr. Waskoskie, while directing and co-ordinating the staffs.

Sharon Curtis and Janice Derby, the literary staff, sought to emphasize individual personalities through appropriate quotations and comprehensive written material.

The typing staff duplicated written copy onto final draft sheets for the publisher. Left to right are Dolores Remaley, Editor; Marita Regruit, Marian Pees, Beverly Hill, Shirley Campbell, and Rita Swank.

The ad staff solicited ads from local merchants to cover publication costs. Barbara Wolfram who served as business manager also handled all financial details.

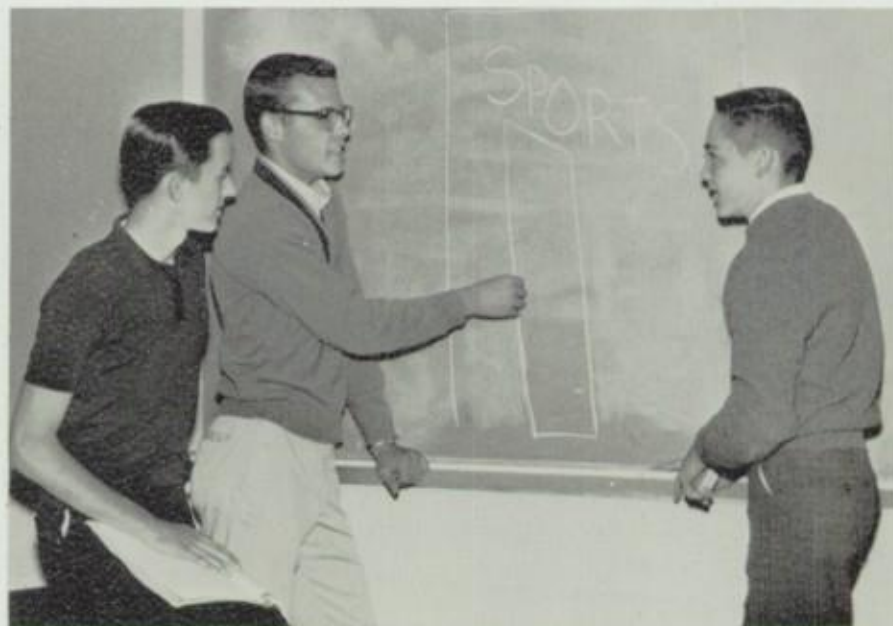

Senior section editor, Merry Markovina concentrated on the graduating class's pages.

While doing odd jobs in all departments the Junior staff gained experience which will help them meet next year's deadlines. They are: Sue McHail, Judy Kunczewski, Bob Trauterman (photographer), Dick Jeltsch, Judi Swiss, Ted Lattanzio, and Dave Eagan.

Jim Smathers
Gordon Rehnborgh
Barbara Wolfram
Linda Conley

Lay-out patterns were carefully designed for each page by the art staff, John Dash, Jim Geiger (Editor), and John Cavicchio.

NEWSPAPERS DISTRIBUTED FREE

Working on a tight, three-week schedule, each member of the newspaper staff had specific deadlines to meet. Because of the extended budget, papers were not sold as in other years but given away.

Charlotte Hoover, Editor-in-Chief, works out a new layout design. Miss Yothers (sponsors, not pictured) was a great help to the staff.

Feature writers add variety to the newspaper. FEATURE STAFF: STANDING: Sue Baker (Assistant Editor), Holly Van Dyke, Cindy Johnson, Ruth Ann Yurek, Nancy Frazer, Mary Johnston, Marie Kukich (Assistant Editor). SITTING: Martha Zatezalo, Cherry Major, Elaine Deegan, Diane Cribbs.

News Editor, Caren Hall, discusses the basic ingredients of a good news story with her staff.

Art work was an essential part of each issue. Art: Pam White, Betsy Freeman, Jan Shaffer, Carole Carter (Editor).

Sports news came to life on page 4. Sports: Bob Trauterman, Jimmy Dash, Jeff Elias (Editor), Mary Jane Mastorovich, Claudia Mance, Linda Conley.

Alone

On a bright sunny day several months ago, I found myself flying over a fairy tale land of swaying palms, sparkling waters, and clear skies. It was still hard for me to believe that I was half way around the world from my home in Pennsylvania, yet it was true. I was to spend my summer on the Philippine Islands, as Franklin's representative to the American Field Service.

During the following three months, I learned much about my host country, its people, and their customs. I was better able to observe the people and their life by actually living with a Philippino family and participating in their everyday activities. To learn more of the customs and history of my new home, my family sent me to a private boys' school. There I learned that the country's many beautiful islands form a modern democracy patterned very much after our own. Everywhere that I went, I was greeted by the happy people of this nation, who are friendly towards all they meet. It certainly was a wonderful summer.

During this experience, I learned not only about the Philippines, but about the AFS as well. I saw the understanding which "teenage ambassadors" are able to spread among the peoples of the world. In this way, I more fully realized the work which the American Field Service is doing. As a result of this realization, I would like to thank all of you here at Franklin for the things you have done for this organization in the past. If it were not for the efforts of people like yourselves, the AFS could not begin to accomplish its many worthwhile aims.

Salamat po,

Bruce Baker

FOREIGN

EXCHANGE

To the Student Body:

In a short while, I shall be returning to Costa Rica. I shall never forget my experiences at Franklin High. I shall always remember the friends I have found here. It will be a sad day when I leave this community and this country.

My native Costa Rica is heaven on earth, and this is where I desire to spend the rest of my days; but, oh how I wish it were possible to transplant this school, and this community with its customs, traditions, and especially its people to my country.

Everyone has been so good and so kind to me. The teachers, the students, and the townspeople have gone out of their way so that I may enjoy my year in America. Franklin, I have been spoiled, and I know that I have failed to display full appreciation for the kindnesses shown to me.

I promise you this—on my return to Costa Rica I will be "Ambassador No. 1" for this community, for this state, and for this country. The warmth of Murrysville, the beauty of Pennsylvania, and the blessings of America will be much for me to talk about.

I will delight in relating about Franklin High School's football games, pep rallies, dances, field trips, biology lab., and my teachers who were so cooperative and patient with an inexperienced American student; about Pennsylvania's White Christmas, skating on ice, knocking down ten wooden pins with a big ball, and baby-sitting.

My American sister, Linda Robbe, was my close companion, and my host parents corrected me when necessary and loved me always. The American Field Service chapter made me feel so important.

I shall never forget you. Please do not forget me.

Adios, amigos,

Skilled singers, dancers, and musicians entertained the glossy-eyed couples at the post-prom party to climax a truly memorable evening.

SPORTS

JOHN SCHWARZEL

LOREN HILL

Wildly enthusiastic crowds cheered from the stands as the "best football team" Ed Eyles has coached at Franklin fought in contests packed with gridiron thrills. Well-executed passing attacks and hard-nosed ground play placed the Panthers in the winning column five times. The season opened under fair skies with a vindictive win over Washington Township. Crowd excitement reached its heights as a spirited Panther squad snatched a second-half victory from Kittanings' clutches. Four heart-breaking losses were certainly atoned for by the decisive victory over our blood-rivals, Penn Claridge. Season play ended with a victorious, but frigid, note as snow flurries and penetrating cold winds engulfed play at the Elders Ridge field.

COACH EYLES

JIM GEIGER

Since the introduction of golf at Franklin as a varsity sport in 1961, Mr. Edward Eyles has coached some very successful teams. Under his expert guidance, the golfers on the 1963 squad eclipsed passed records. The boys' skill on the fairways and greens, developed through the hours of rigorous practice, resulted in an undefeated season of section competition which carried them into the district championship play-offs. On-target drives and accurate putting kept them in two rounds of this tournament, but on May 28, McKeesport High edged the Franklin team by a close margin, ending play for the year.

The 1963 section championship trophy in the display case will serve as a reminder in years to come of the ability and sportsmanship of Franklin's 1963 golf team.

BASEBALL

Baseball at Franklin has always been one of the most popular spring sports. The team starts practice in the early spring immediately after the end of basketball season. Often the so called spring weather is more like that of winter and it isn't unusual to see the boys practicing in snow flurries. Last year our baseball team again ran rough-shod over the other teams in Section XII and took section honors. Under the able coaching of Mr. Kelley, the boys proved that hard practice and grim determination pays off.

Val,

Lots of luck to a real sweet girl who I hope will always be my friend. Always remember the first time we ~~met~~ met and then how we became good friends when you started going to Franklin. Always remember the good times we had at the skating rink, Greensburg football game, the Red Rooster, and at school. Never forget the time I got mad at you because of David Calistia's cousin, Greg. I see him every once in a while when we go by his house or something. Boy that was really stupid. I might make it up your house someday soon I hope. I can't wait to call John. He's probably going steady or something. Oh well I got Bill (I think). I'll never be able to repay you for what you do for me about once a week. You know what I mean. If you wouldn't I would really be up a creek. Remember the fun we had at Chabtree fireworks and how I lost a dice and every thing. I hope next year will be as fun-filled as this year. Oh and good luck with with Ron.

Val,
 I am a real doll & the best kind of friend any one could ever ask for.
 Never forget last summer (when it all started - like the sharpest Friday night ever - I don't know how you ever shed over her the fun & joy & also the tears Perry & I never forget this winter when we both thought our friendship was over, but we were both imagining things (Thank God) never forgot the fun at Maple Grove & the boys &
 we were both hoping for this summer rings we got! I sure hope this summer will be just as much fun as last. (I sure hope we will start as close as we have been this past year & all days.
 Good luck with Ronnie & please don't hurt him like Barle did.
 I don't intend to have fun but be good.
 Always
 Hoover
